JUMP START PROGRAM

Benedictine University's Jump Start Program offers eligible students the opportunity to begin their college experience early by enrolling in summer courses prior to their first fall semester.

To participate, students must be admitted and fully matriculated at Benedictine University. The program allows students to get a head start on their academic journey while benefiting from a reduced tuition rate for select summer courses.

Interested students work with their academic advisor to explore available course options and ensure alignment with their academic goals.