Re-Admission

Former Benedictine University students, who have not been enrolled as degree-seeking students for at least three semesters including Summer, may apply for re-admission. An application must be submitted and will be reviewed for an admissions decision. Applicants who experienced academic problems should be prepared to demonstrate to the Academic Admissions Committee sufficient reasons for reconsideration. A student's previous scholarship eligibility will be re-evaluated under the current transfer/degree-completion scholarship rules. If a student's enrollment has been terminated for poor scholarship, such a student may be readmitted after a minimum of two academic semesters, provided evidence is presented which, in the judgment of the University, indicates that there is improved potential for academic success. All college courses for which the student registered in his/her absence from Benedictine University must be presented in the form of official transcripts. For re-admission under amnesty, see the Academic Policies (<http://catalog.ben.edu/lisle-undergraduate/general-policies/>) section. Students will be re-admitted under the current catalog requirements. Students that are close to graduation under their original catalog requirements may discuss options with their admissions counselor for appeal of their catalog year.

General Admissions Policy

Benedictine University reserves the right to deny admission, continued enrollment, or re-enrollment to any applicant or student whose personal history and background indicate that his or her presence at the University would endanger the health, safety, welfare or property of the members of the academic community or interfere with the orderly and effective performance of the University's functions. Some programs have special admissions standards. If you are considering a particular program, you need to determine the admissions standards for that program by reviewing the descriptions contained later in the Catalog under Academic Programs (<http://catalog.ben.edu/lisle-undergraduate/academic-programs/>) or by contacting the faculty member responsible for the program. Failure to provide Benedictine University with a correct and complete academic history will result in revoking of acceptance and/or administrative withdrawal.
