

INTERDISCIPLINARY SEMINAR (IDS)

IDS 1100 Bridge to Success. (Formerly 100) This IDS 1100 class will be interdisciplinary in nature, exploring several of the themes that are inherent in a course designed within the traditional meaning of a liberal arts education. Focus on the values of the Benedictine mission and tradition, including love of Christ and neighbor, stewardship of the planet, hospitality, and stability will pervade the curriculum and serve as a robust introduction to your life as a student within our special community. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Summer Term)

IDS 2201 Catholic/Benedictine Traditions. (Formerly 201) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on various religious and philosophical traditions, including one or more Catholic or Benedictine hallmark(s). Students with 30 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Writing Intensive

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

MESA

IDS 2202 Catholic/Benedictine Intellectual Traditions: Sustainability/Stewardship. (Formerly 202) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on various religious and philosophical traditions, including one or more Catholic or Benedictine hallmark(s). Students with 30 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Writing Intensive; Sustainability

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

MESA

IDS 2203 Catholic/Benedictine Intellectual Traditions: Global. (Formerly 203) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on various religious and philosophical traditions, including one or more Catholic or Benedictine hallmark(s). Students with 30 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Writing Intensive; Global

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

IDS 2204 Catholic/Benedictine Intellectual Traditions: Sustainability/Stewardship and Global. (Formerly 204) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on various religious and philosophical traditions, including one or more Catholic or Benedictine hallmark(s). Students with 30 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Writing Intensive; Sustainability; Global

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

IDS 3301 Human Dignity/Common Good. (Formerly 301) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on issues of social responsibility, stewardship of self and environment, civic engagement, and personal and intellectual development. Students with 60 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: -

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Spring Term)

MESA

IDS 3302 Human Dignity/Common Good: Sustainability/Stewardship. (Formerly 302) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on issues of social responsibility, stewardship of self and environment, civic engagement, and personal and intellectual development. Students with 60 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Sustainability

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

MESA (Typically Offered: Periodically)

IDS 3303 Human Dignity/Common Good: Global. (Formerly 303) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on issues of social responsibility, stewardship of self and environment, civic engagement, and personal and intellectual development. Students with 60 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Global

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

MESA

IDS 3304 Human Dignity/Common Good: Sustainability/Stewardship and Global. (Formerly 304) Interdisciplinary seminar focused on issues of social responsibility, stewardship of self and environment, civic engagement, and personal and intellectual development. Students with 60 or more credit hours earned. 3 semester credit hour/s.

Designation: Sustainability; Global

Campus: LISLE (Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms)

MESA (Typically Offered: Periodically)